SEC 30-Day Yield This calculation is based on a 30-day period ending on the last day of the month. It is computed by dividing the net investment income per share earned during the period by the maximum offering price per share on the last day of the period. The yield figure reflects the dividends and interest earned during the period, after the deduction of the fund's expenses. A subsidized yield takes into consideration the expenses paid by the sub-advisers and adviser.

*The Fund considers investment grade securities to be those securities that are rated at or above Baa3 by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's"), BBB- by Standard & Poor's Corporation ("S&P"), or an equivalent rating by another nationally recognized securities rating organization ("NRSRO"). Securities that are unrated are listed as such. If a security had multiple ratings that were not identical, the highest rating was used.

Quarterly Fund Commentary

Municipal bond mutual funds exhibited inflows over the quarter, which contributed to provide a stable technical backdrop, as supply of bonds remained limited. Municipal yields had both mixed and marginal changes over the quarter, with short term rates moving slightly lower and intermediate and longer rates moving slightly higher. Generally, when interest rates fall, bond prices rise. Conversely, when interest rates rise, bond prices fall. Credit quality was also a differentiator of performance. Lower-quality bonds generally outperformed higher-quality bonds. Revenue bonds performed in line with general obligation bonds.

The Fund returned 1.24% during the quarter, which outperformed the Bloomberg Barclays Municipal 1-15 Year Index that returned 0.93%. As lower-quality bonds outperformed higher-quality bonds, the high-yield bond allocation in the Fund aided performance. Interest-rate and sector positioning were overall neutral while security selection was the largest contributor to outperformance. In particular, security selection from the general obligation, education, healthcare, tax backed, and transportation sectors added to performance. From a sector perspective, the Fund was overweight healthcare bonds, which helped relative performance.

The Gross Expense Ratio, per the Fund's latest Prospectus, includes all categories of expenses before any expense reductions or fee waivers.

Olive Street Investment Advisers, LLC has contractually agreed, until at least October 28, 2018, to waive its management fees to the extent management fees to be paid to the Adviser exceed the management fees the Fund is required to pay the Fund's Sub-advisers. This contractual agreement may only be changed or eliminated with the approval of the Board of Trustees. Such waivers are not subject to reimbursement by the Fund.

Mutual fund investing involves risk. The value of your investment in the Fund could go down as well as up. Investing in the bond market is subject to certain risks including market, credit, interest-rate, liquidity and reinvestment risk. The risks to the municipal bond market can include unusual volatility, liquidity issues, the inability of the issuer to repay the obligation and a tax risk to the investor if the municipal obligation fails to meet requirements. There is no guarantee that all of the municipal bond income will remain exempt from federal or state income taxes. Investments in municipal securities may be adversely affected by unfavorable legislative or political developments and economic developments that impact the financial condition of municipal issuers. Investments in lower-rated and non-rated securities presents a greater risk of loss to principal and interest than higher-rated securities. Multi-manager and multi-style management may lead to overlapping securities transactions and higher transaction expenses compared to single investment management styles. Outcomes depend on the skill of the sub-advisers and adviser and the allocation of assets amongst them.
